TWO TRUCKING COMPANIES ARE DENIED PERMITS

Interstate And Keeshin Lines Are Ordered Off Highways

Chicago, Jan. 26.—(AP)—The Illinois Commerce Commission late yesterday barred from the state highways two trucking companies that applied for authority to operate parallel with railroads serving northern Illinois.

The commission refused certificates of necessity and convenience to the Keeshin Motor Express Company and the Interstate Trucking Company. The Keeshin Company since 1930 operated 140 trucks from Chicago to DeKalb, Dixon, Sterling and Rock Island; from Dixon to Freeport, Rockford, Peru and Ottawa, from LaSalle to Ogleby, from Sterling to Savanna and from Mt. Carroll to Lanark.

The Interstate Trucking Company since 1926 has operated 71 trucks from Rock Island to Rockford, Freeport, Sterling, DeKalb and Chicago.

The order included a suggestion that the Illinois legislature adopt a definite policy on freight trucks using highways.

The commission held that the trucks menaced millions of dollars' investment by railroads which bore a considerable portion of the tax burden. Trucks pay only city and state license fees and gasoline taxes.

CITY OF DIXON OBJECTED

City Attorney Martin J. Gannon several weeks ago filed objections on the part of the city of Dixon with the Illinois Commerce Commission opposing the issuance of a certificate of convenience and necessity to the Keeshin Motor Express Company. Outstanding in his list of objections City Attorney Gannon set forth the following:

That no necessity exists for the service of such a carrier and the citizens will not be inconvenienced thereby.

That the proposed operation of the company will not serve public convenience and necessity in Dixon.

That the operation of the type of trucks used by the company is damaging to the highways.

That the operation of the trucks will create a hazard to the residents of Dixon.

That the Keeshin company pays no compensation to the city for the use of its highways and that an excessive burden for maintenance, repair and replacement of the city's streets is placed upon the city and the owners of property abutting on the highways.

That the city is adequately served by carriers authorized to engage in the transportation of property into Dixon.

That the city is now served by the Chicago & North Western railway company by virtue of its main line, a due east and west course, and is served by the Illinois Central from north to south.

That the granting of the certificate would necessarily congest the highways and create serious traffic difficulties.

That the taxes, special assessments and wages paid by the rail carriers in Dixon are important to the welfare of the city and its inhabitants and unnecessary competition in transportation will tend to reduce these payments and prove a detriment to the city.

That the North Western railroad company in the year 1930 paid to the city in general taxes the sum of approximately $1,446.00 and that the Keeshin Motor Express Company under the present law would pay no tax for the use of the city's highways.

The final objection was outstanding in Dixon's petition to the commission over those filed by many other cities, in that it drew attention to the fact that the Keeshin company has been operating a motor carrier through Dixon and throughout the state of Illinois without any certificate of convenience from the Illinois Commerce Commission as provided by law.

Plan Appeal at Once

I. W. Hart, vice president of the Keeshin company, when reached in Chicago by an Associated Press correspondent last night, said an immediate appeal would be taken from the commission's order. The commission's order gives thirty days for an appeal, and would not be effective pending disposal of the appeal, Hart said. Hart told The Associated Press that if the appeal failed to give the Keeshin concern authority to operate as a common carrier, business would still be continued on a contract basis. It was assumed the same plan would be followed by the Interstate firm.

Hart told The Associated Press the case first would be appealed to the commission for a review after additional evidence had been presented in brief, and if the commission again ruled adversely, the recourse would be appeals to the Circuit court and thence, if necessary, through to the State Supreme court.

Illinois Institutions Borrow $137,319,500

Burglar Who Scales Walls Eludes Police

Chicago, Jan. 26.—(AP)—An acrobatic burglar who can scale the smooth walls of a house without the aid of a ladder terrorized two women residents of swanky Lake Forest and robbed one of approximately $75.

The victims, Police Chief Frank Tiffany of the suburb said, were Mrs. Lloyd Alan Laffin, daughter-in-law of the late Louis Laffin, a director of the Elgin Watch Co., and Miss Dorothy North.

Mrs. Laffin was the first to report the intruder early yesterday. She said she awakened and saw a masked man peering in at her through her bedroom window. As she screamed for her husband the man dropped to the ground.

Three hours later Miss North awoke when a flashlight was turned on her face. After warning her to make no outcry and yanking telephone wires from the wall, she said the man, who answered the description of the one given by Mrs. Laffin, demanded her money. After giving him a roll of bills she said he fled by way of the window.

SOLDIERS WERE NOT NEEDED TO GUARD HORNER

Were In Readiness In Armories After Disturbances

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Some 300 of the unemployed who staged a near riot in the reception room of Governor Henry Horner's office were back at their homes today, a few with bruised heads, while police organized to guard a parade of about 5,000 women, partisans of the Progressive Miners' union.

A crowd claiming to represent the Illinois Council of the Unemployed gave city and state police a few lively hours yesterday in quelling a disturbance. City police last night escorted the demonstrators to the city limits and ordered them not to come back unless they could be orderly.

No disorder, however, was anticipated in connection with the women's march today. Miss Agnes Burns Weick, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Progressive Miners, said the parade merely was to call attention of the public to the drawn-out inter-union warfare that has resulted in death and destruction in the coal fields. Governor Horner arranged to meet the auxiliary president and other representatives after the parade and discuss mine conditions with them.

Ejected From House

The disturbance at the Governor's office came yesterday after representatives of the unemployed were ejected from a joint session of the legislature where they sought to address the body. The crowd then surged into the Governor's reception hall. The Governor came out from his private office and agreed to confer with five representatives from the crowd.

As the Governor stepped back inside, the mob began shouting and pushing. City and state police swung clubs and the mob was pushed out. A door was torn from its hinges by the shouting crowd. Nine persons, including six women, were detained by police but later released to join their companions on the homebound trek.

Two companies of Illinois National Guardsmen, meeting for regular drill last night, were told to stand by for possible mobilization orders in the event that the disturbance grew. They were dismissed and sent to their homes, however, after drill.

Many Attended H. Petri Rites Today

The funeral of Henry Petri at Harmon this morning was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. A large number from Dixon were present.

When rising from a dining table, it is regarded as being in better form to allow the chair to remain where it is instead of pushing it back into place.

Fred Keister Of Nelson Summoned

Fred Keister, prominent farmer and Civil War veteran of Nelson township, where he had resided for a number of years, passed away at his home, one mile east of Nelson on the Rock Island road about 11 o'clock this morning, death resulting from a lingering illness. Funeral arrangements had not been completed and will be announced later.

Annual allotment to Dixon would be $14,709. In other cities they are:

Belvidere $12,967.99; Chicago $5,012.47; East Moline $14,998; Elgin $53,339; Freeport $32,731; Keokuk $25,377; Galesburg $42,802; LaSalle $19,543; Macomb $12,646; Moline $47,861; Ottawa $22,409; Peoria $155,838; Peru $13,551; Rock Island $56,345; Rockford $127,474; Streator $221,867; Sterling $14,858; Waukegan $47,737.

LOANS OF R. F. C. MADE PUBLIC IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Loans Made By Federal Organization Total $1,195,305,774

Washington, Jan. 26.—(AP)—The House of Representatives and the country were told in detail today—despite strenuous objections from Reconstruction Corporation members—just how that huge federal relief agency pledged $1,195,000,000 in five months to help business try to get on an even keel.

In compliance with a special resolution adopted by the House, the Corporation sent to Speaker Garner a statement showing each loan authorized by the R. F. C. between the date of its creation on Feb. 2, 1932, and July 21, 1932.

Following the policy he insisted upon last spring, Garner made the report public. Pressure had been exerted to have the report given only to Members of Congress, on the ground that publication would be harmful to the borrowers. The Speaker denied this and held that since the loans granted after July 21 had been published under an amendment to the original R. F. C. Act the others should be, too. The later loans have been made public monthly since July.

Illinois' Share Told

Of the $1,195,305,774 authorized for loans by the Corporation during the period a total of $137,319,500 went to banks, insurance, mortgage and building and loan organizations in Illinois.

Of the state's total, $132,480,500 was loaned to banks.

The largest borrower during that period was the Chicago Central Republic Bank & Trust Company, which received $90,000,000.

The institution, commonly called the Dawes bank because of the association of former Vice President Charles G. Dawes, paid back $23,576,238 by July 20.

The loan was made in two parts, the first application, for $16,000,000, was authorized July 25. Two days later the second, for $74,000,000, was authorized.

Several Chicago banks went back for additional loans, running their total into the millions.

The largest to a downtown bank was $2,409,000 to the Moline State Trust & Savings Bank. Its neighbor, the Rock Island Bank & Trust Company, received $1,000,000.

FREE CLINIC AT EIKS TOMORROW FOR CHILDREN

Crippled Kiddies Of Community To Get Free Advice

A free clinic for crippled children will be held at the Lodge Home of Dixon Elks tomorrow at 1:30 P. M.

Since the Illinois Elks Association instituted the work on behalf of crippled children in April 1929 1001 clinics have been held, 10,603 children have been examined, and 623 children have been given hospital treatment. In many instances these little folks were taken to the hospital as hopeless cripples and are now in perfectly normal condition. Much credit is due to the organization for the splendid work, which is being done.

The parents of any children desiring treatment are requested to bring them to the clinic, and all physicians are cordially invited to be present.

Concerning this great work of the Elks President Hoover says: "I am deeply interested to learn of the cooperative work—in behalf of crippled children, carried on under the leadership of the Elks Lodges. No more worthy work can be undertaken. I cordially commend such efforts."

President-elect Roosevelt also endorses the movement as follows: "The work for crippled children—under the leadership of the Elks—is of intense personal interest to me. I hope to see the day when the business of helping cripples to help themselves will be undertaken throughout the entire country."

BRITAIN INSISTS CONFERENCES BE LIMITED TO DEBT

Acceptance Details Terms Of The Empire's Participation

London, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Great Britain's action in limiting the forthcoming Anglo-American conference to decisions on war debts only today apparently eliminated any chance of that Washington parley eclipsing the proposed world economic conference in London.

In official circles it was conceded that Great Britain did not want the scope and purposes of the projected London conference limited, despite President-elect Roosevelt's offer to discuss the general world situation.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald yesterday was elected chairman of the forthcoming economic meeting, which cannot be held before this summer. This was decided yesterday by a preparatory commission which also listed currency, tariffs, prices and movements of capital as among the world problems to be considered at that time.

Newspapers here viewed the British restrictions, presented to Secretary Stimson yesterday, with general approval. They expressed fears that the conference may be clouded by discussions of other world economic problems, such as tariffs, the gold standard and stabilization of foreign exchanges before the war debts question could be arranged.

Washington, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Great Britain's acceptance of terms for a war debts discussion was regarded today as having filled in much of the ground that must be built up before President-elect Roosevelt talks with that nation's representatives.

This attitude was taken generally in many quarters despite the British reservation against deciding in advance of a meeting of all nations to be represented there what subjects should be placed on the agenda of the world economic conference.

In the weeks preceding the American meetings in March with Great Britain and other debtor nations which have paid promptly, other exchanges undoubtedly will take place, outlining in more detail the ideas of both Mr. Roosevelt and the prospective foreign visitors.

The incoming Chief Executive himself had no comment to make at Warm Spring on the British acceptance, but he was represented as having well-developed views on the forthcoming debts discussions and the economic conference and being ready to do his own bargaining.

Acceptance Note

Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British Ambassador, delivered his country's note to the State Department. It said that Great Britain is "happy" to accept the opportunity of a debts discussion and added:

"The effect of the debt situation upon a wide range of world economic problems is crucial to every government and in the course of the discussion at Washington on the debt we shall be

BROOKLYN BABY VICTIM OF FOUL FATAL ASSAULT

Six-Year-Old Child Was Enticed By Killer, Then Strangled

New York, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Mothers in Brooklyn's Stuyvesant Heights kept frightened eyes on their babies today for fear a killer with a twisted brain might slay them as he did six-year-old Helen Sterler.

Helen's body was found in a dark coal bin last night. The clothesline that strangled her was still around her neck. A half eaten piece of penny candy lay on the floor. Police said a degenerate coaxed her into the tenement house cellar, mistreated and killed her, and then crept away unnoticed.

Only a few hours before, Helen had been seen at play in the crowded street outside. Her mother had given her a penny and she was munching peppermint drops she bought with it. Police ransacking the neighborhood for clues were told she entered a variety store a little later and bought for a few pennies a paper mache toy showing "Paris Views."

Detectives believed the killer had given her this money then waited outside the store for her. When she failed to return home, her father, Louis, an unemployed house painter, told police, and they started searching cellars.

When they called Sterler into the dark place where the body lay to identify it, he stood silent for several minutes, then screamed: "My baby—she was just a baby. You police—if you don't find the man, I will."

A muttering crowd gathered outside. At home the child's mother fainted when she heard the news. Detectives had a theory that it was some one from the immediate neighborhood who committed the terrible act.

Former Leader Of "400" In New York City Is Dead

HARROLD DAVIS, PROMINENT MAN, CONFESSED; DIED

Raised A County Check For $8.50 To $850 To Pay Client

St. Charles, Ill., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Kane county reverberated today with echoes in society and finance to the suicide of Harrold H. Davis, prominent politician, who drank poison within one hour after his confession to raising a check against county funds.

The president of the County Forest Preserve admitted last night in a conference of county officials that he raised an $8.50 check against the Forest Preserve's fund to $850 in order to make a payment to the widow of a St. Charles contractor whose estate he was administering.

Sheriff Harry Crawford told Davis to "go home and not worry," that nothing would be done about it immediately, but to return this morning for a talk. Instead Davis bought a poison form a druggist "to clean some silver," went to his insurance office and drank it. He left no note.

Seek Irregularities

A Coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide. Meanwhile the county Board of Supervisors searched the books of the Forest Preserve, believed to have been ably presided over by Davis, for possible irregularities.

Mrs. Signa Jensen returned to the county $850 in cash which Davis gave her yesterday in accounting of her husband's $10,000 estate. She said she did not want the money "that way."

Davis got a check for $8.50 from County Clerk Charles Lowry to pay for labor on the Forest Preserve. He asked for it in ink, saying he had no time to wait for it to be punched out on the perforating machine. He took it to the Deputy County Treasurer, Miss Urania Kenyon, for her countersign and then he personally perforated it for $850 in her office.

Admitted Deed

Lowry conferred with Miss Kenyon shortly afterward, saying Davis had appeared nervous. They told each other of the two varying amounts and called the Batavia National Bank, but Davis already had covered the three miles from Geneva and cashed the check.

Confronted by Miss Kenyon and Lowry, the 39-year-old Davis said, "Well, I'm caught."

Arthur P. Dagge, St. Charles druggist, testified at the inquest to Davis' purchase of the poison last night at 7:30 o'clock.

Davis' body was found by a youth named Vonck in his office at 1 A. M. Physicians said he had been dead about five or six hours.

Davis was survived by his widow and two sons, William and David. He had a brother, Chester Davis, in Chicago.

Sterlingite Held On Liquor Charge

Leonard Knox of Sterling was fined $100 and costs this morning by Justice Grover W. Gehant on a charge of possessing and transporting intoxicating liquor. Knox was arrested by Sheriff Richardson and Deputy Ward Miller while making his collection of milk north and west of Prairieville. In default of the amount he was sent to the county jail.

Complaints reaching the Sheriff's office were said to be that Knox delivered liquor to customers on his milk route as he returned from Sterling. According to the officers Knox was about to deliver an order to a farm where a butchering bee was in progress when he was arrested.

Auto Hits Train: Two Dead: One Hurt

Chrisman, Ill., Jan. 26.—(AP)—One man was killed, another was injured so that he died shortly after in a Paris hospital, and a third was believed fatally injured when an automobile bearing an Indiana license plate struck a Big Four freight car at a crossing this morning.

An American Legion membership card bearing the name of Joe Boosler of Linton, Indiana was in the pocket of the man who died in the hospital. The name of Gordon Hinsley, 30, of Marion, Ind., was given as that of the man who was killed, by the third man, who gave a name police believed assumed.

In the automobile was found a sawed-off shot gun, two revolvers and a rifle, and $1,100 in cash was found in the pockets of the three men.

Their automobile was badly damaged and the Big Four freight car, which had stopped, blocking the highway, was knocked off the tracks.

A Special Commission's Report Filed With State Assembly

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 26.—(AP)—Curtailments and consolidations of governmental functions, to reduce expenses of state government $16,000,000 in the next biennium, were urged upon the 58th General Assembly today in the majority report of the Commission on Taxation and Expenditures, appointed last session.

A minority report, signed by three Democratic members of the commission, took issue with the conclusions reached by the Republican majority, and declared that a saving of $16,000,000 could not be made for the next biennium without seriously injuring the functions of the state.

All members united in declaring the prime necessity in Illinois was an up to date revenue article in the state constitution.

John Campbell Is Wed in Chicago in Impressive Ceremony

Miss Mary Brown of 115 Dempster street, Evanston, and John Campbell, formerly of Dixon, were united in marriage at the Catholic church of the Sacred Heart at 7050 May Street, Chicago, Saturday morning at 9:30 high mass by Father Maywurm, a beautiful ceremony.

The church was very beautifully decorated in palms and flowers for the occasion.

The bride was attired in a lovely white satin wedding gown with a long lace veil, caught cape fashion with orange blossoms. She carried brides roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid was Miss Anne Stoler, who wore orchid satin, and carried a large bouquet of pink roses, and wore a coronet of orchid tulle and flowers. The maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Paul Brown, wore a gown of pale green satin and carried yellow Pernet roses. She wore a coronet of yellow tulle and rosebuds.

The bridegroom wore a dress suit, as did his best man, who was his brother, Edward Campbell.
Joseph Brown, brother of the bride, gave his sister in marriage, and he also wore a dress suit.

The impressive double ring service was used. The little four-year-old niece of the bridegroom, the flower girl and wore a dainty frock of pale green georgette.

A wedding breakfast and reception followed the ceremony, at the home of the bride's sister, at 5648 Morgan street, where there were lovely decorations of cut flowers and the table was graced by a three tier wedding cake, finished by a miniature bride and groom.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will live at the Heurtha Apartments, 1705 Jonquil Terrace and Howard street, Chicago.

The bride is a sweet and charming girl, and the bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Campbell of 306 E. First street Dixon. He is a graduate of the Dixon high school of the class of 1927 and attended the University of Illinois School of Pharmacy at Chicago for two years, and is now assistant manager of the Walgreen
Drug store at 1301 Dempster street
Evanston. John is a fine young man whose host of Dixon friends join in wishing the young couple every happiness. Guests attending

Miss Buchner Is Happily Surprised

Miss Catherine Buchner was happily surprised on Tuesday eve-

the occasion being the celebration with all present. When confetti was tossed in the air Happy Birthday was the greeting all gave the young hostess. Tempting refreshments added to the pleasure of all present. Miss Buchner was the recipient of many good wishes from her friends and a number of nice gifts.

HAMLET HAS BEEN RE- TURNED TO HIS HOME—

Chicago, Jan. 26 — (AP) — The story of Hamlet, a tragedy, has turned out to be a comedy. Hamlet, Great Dan pup, which vanished from the home of its owner, President Robert Maynard Hutchins of the University of Chicago, was returned safely by two boys. So the ten cents a week "salary" President
Hutchins' six-year-old daughter, Franja, collected for caring for the animal, will go on.

SWEET POTATO VINE IS ATTRACTIVE—

Some time ago we spoke in these columns of a pretty vine which grows from a sweet potato. Mrs.
Lillian Benjamin, of Peoria avenue, (who however, had heard of this before), placed a sweet potato in water, in a pretty basket with a handle. Now the vine which sprouted soon after placing the potato in water, completely covers the handle, and is a tender green color, with leaves much the shape of ivy.

SCHOOL BOOK TRUST EXPOSED.

Ontario Furnishes Figures Which Show How Americans Are Gouged; Good Place to Enforce Economy in Educational Costs.

In most, if not all, states of the Union, a combination of publishers dictates the textbooks used in public schools. This so-called "School Book Trust" charges high prices, and so that it may continue to charge them, is constantly spending large sums to control school board elections and to put its friends in key positions in our educational system. One of the Trust's favorite "rackets" is to change textbooks at frequent intervals, thus boosting sales.

West Virginia is probably no worse gouged by the School Book Trust than many other states; but the Wheeling "Intelligencer" has been making an effort to end the graft and in the course of its campaign wrote to the minister of education of Ontario, Canada, to find out how that thrifty province managed things. The response was truly startling.

Textbooks for Ontario schools are prepared by experts under direction of the government. They are printed by private publishers who tender bids for the jobs, and there is keen competition. The maximum price at which they may be sold is fixed by the provincial government, and the contract to furnish these books usually runs for seven years. The "Intelligencer" prints the following table of comparative prices:

	Ontario	West Virginia
Primer	4 cents	37 cents
First reader	6 cents	37 cents
Second reader	9 cents	44 cents
Third reader	14 cents	56 cents
Speller	19 cents	35 cents
Grammar	25 cents	52 cents
Arithmetic	10 cents	52 cents
Geography	75 cents	1.72 cents

West Virginia pays from two to nine times as much per book as Ontario, and takes the added chance of propaganda creeping into the books laid before children in their most impressionable years. And the Ontario prices given are the maximum; by buying direct from the publisher, the parents get a 20 per cent discount.

If in these times of depression, the American people want to save money on their schools without taking it out of the children, a good place to start would be on the School Book Trust.—Washington, D. C., Labor.

WHERE SYMPATHY FALLS SHORT.

A Cincinnati bailiff had a job that required him to serve eviction notices on those who couldn't pay their rent.

Day after day he went into the homes of victims of the depression, presenting the slips of paper that meant disaster. He got $1700 a year for it, which is not to be sneezed at in these times, and for a while it looked like a pretty fair job.

But the other day he had to serve an eviction writ on a sick mother and her three tiny children. They had no money and no fuel and were cowering in bed to keep warm. So this bailiff dug down in his own pocket, paid their rent, bought them coal and some groceries—and then went down to the city hall and resigned his job.

"I don't want this job of putting poor people out of their homes any longer," he said. "You can give this job to someone else."

Now most of us have felt the same sort of sympathy that moved this chap. Some of the things that have happened to the unemployed in the last year or so are enough to wring the heart. But what makes this chap unlike the rest of us is the fact that he finally got so full of sympathy that he had to do something about it.

There wasn't much that he could do, of course. He put a little poultice, so to speak, on one wound among five million or more. But what he could do, he did do. He didn't simply remark that conditions were dreadful and let it go at that.

And that is apt to make a reflective person wonder why it is that the sympathy of society as a whole has been so unproductive of similar definite action. We shake our heads over the plight of the jobless, and we give what money we can spare to charity but we haven't yet started any comprehensive program that would end these evictions, put fuel in these cold stoves and stock these empty shelves with an unfailing supply of groceries.

We cling tenaciously to the old pre-depression scale of debts. We shudder with horror when anyone even suggests any inflationary scheme. We chant our steadfast opposition to "the dole." We keep on muddling along, in short, ready to pour out any amount of sympathy but strangely unwilling to put all our energy into the job of fixing things up.

As all the Tinies worked away, one of them said, "It is just like play. I guess that we are going to prove we are real good cooks at that."

"I have whipped the eggs up. They are a sight. I will shortly scramble them just right. I only hope that nothing that we plan on turns out flat."

Another Tiny said, "Well, gee! Please give some credit, lads, to me. I've set the little table, putting things where they belong."

"Five places! See? We won't need more. The hound can eat upon the floor. If we all keep on going like this, nothing will go wrong."

"You are right," said wee Scouty. "We are very good. But, now we need a little wood to build a fine fire in the stove, so we can start to cook."

"I think that Duncy can do that. He's merely sat and sat and sat." Then Duncy jumped up to his feet and said, "All right, I will look."

Outside he found a big woodpile. He brought a load in, with a smile. "I will make the fire," said Scouty. "Then we'll know it won't go out."

"You see, I have trained for days and days, to safely make a real fine blaze. That is just one of the things I've learned through being a Boy Scout."

It wasn't very long until the meal was ready. What a thrill! Just at the proper time the hunter walked in through the door.

"Well, well," he shouted. "What a fine bunch. I see you have prepared some lunch. Come, let's sit down and eat until we can't eat any more."

"I knew the hound would bring you here and how you lads have brought me cheer." And then they started eating. Then the whole bunch heard a cry.

It was Cappy, and with quite a strain, he yelled, "Look through that window pane." They did, and saw a bear's face in the window, right nearby.

(Scouty makes a surprising discovery in the next story.)

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JESUS AND THE SABBATH

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.

Recently a very interesting question was presented me; not that I should decide it with arbitrary power or dogmatic judgment, but because my correspondent sought my opinion.

A church which had at its disposal a vacant lot, and which was, like most all churches, confronted with the need of making the most of its resources, was offered the proposition that the lot should be used for a gasoline service station, the church to receive for the use of the lot a percentage of the profits.

The friend who wrote me was disposed to question the propriety of the church permitting such use of its lot, on the ground that much business would be done on Sunday.

It is an interesting question for all to consider in relation to the teaching and practice of Jesus concerning the Sabbath. Every one who considers the question honestly will realize that it probably touches his own life and practice particularly if he drives an automobile.

He may say at once that a church should not participate in any such matter; but manifestly the question of using gasoline on Sunday, or buying it on Sunday, is involved as much as the question of selling it, and one is very easily led into consideration of the extent to which the whole situation has changed in a complex society.

For instance, if food were not sold on Sunday in a large city today, many people would inevitably go hungry, and the law and custom of our modern cities has recognized this.

It ought, I think, to be fairly manifest that we are face to face with problems in our modern world for which there is no simple or mechanical solution, and that we have to fall back on spiritual principles and common sense. It was precisely these factors that Jesus brought to bear upon the Sabbath question of his time.

The strictest prevailing religion had made of the Sabbath a sort of fetish. Mechanical observance was much more than mercy, and the minds and souls of men had become so corrupted by their show of strictness and zeal that they even questioned whether it was not a sin to heal one's fellow men and to bring them blessing upon the Sabbath Day. If we would follow the spirit of Jesus, we must beware of harsh and mechanical attitudes toward the Sabbath as well as toward any other day.

On the other hand, when one turns to the world today and sees how almost completely the idea of a day of rest has broken down both in the minds of men and in custom and practice, one must turn to the deeper teaching of Jesus and lay stress upon the way in which he emphasized the holiness of every day and the holiness of all true life and conduct.

The great things that he came to bring men were the things that a true conception of the Sabbath emphasized—rest, devotion, and worship, and right relationships with one's fellow men through worship and the institutions of religion.

The way out of our difficulties today is not through return to a narrow and mechanical Sabbatarianism, which would necessitate a return to a very much simpler form of civilization, but by bringing into all of our complex life the beauty, the power, and the richness of what Jesus taught and lived.

NEED JOB PRINTING?
Call No. 5, B. F. Shaw Printing Co., Dixon, Ill. Printers for over 82 years.

I don't spend very much on Myself—

BUT, believe ME, when it comes to what I smoke, I want it right!

You know how it is when a fellow is accustomed to smoking a good cigarette and he gets hold of one that isn't right. He's likely to get in a bad humor.

I am a great believer in the old saying that "quality will tell," and I have noticed that the things which come to stay are good things.

You can buy a package of good cigarettes for 15c. Six cents of this goes to the Government. So that outside of the 6c paid to the Government, you get a little over two cigarettes for one cent.

The right kind of tobacco, the right sort of paper—a cigarette that's pure and good-tasting and mild—that's the kind I want.

I have been smoking CHESTERFIELDS for a long time. They are mild and yet they satisfy.

PAIN DEADENED
CHEST COLDS
LOOSENED
WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengue (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no other remedy for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your pharmacist for Baume Bengue by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic launies, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real relief.

Sidelights In News In Capital Of United States

By HERBERT PLUMMER

Washington—The youthful and militant Senator Tydings of Maryland — "Glad Tydings" to his friends because of his sunny disposition—is reported as wanting to resign from the senate.

He's disgusted and mortified, it is said, at the way the senate has been acting of late—particularly at the prolonged filibuster against the Glass banking bill.

"If we go on fiddling," warns Tydings, "I shall resign."

His proposed resignation would keep him out of the senate only the remainder of the present session. On March 4 he would resume his seat under a new commission.

Whether he fulfills his threat or not, Tydings would not be the first senator to resign in a huff, although he probably would be the first to quit under circumstances that he has described.

Kenyon Walked Out

Senator Kenyon of Iowa was often disgusted with the senate's ways of doing things. Old timers around the senate have heard him remark more than once that he was going to quit.

Finally, he did walk out. Re-elected in 1928 to a six-year term, he was offered a judgeship on the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in 1922 by President Harding and took it. He's still holding the job.

Kenyon's pet grievance was what he called "social lobbies" in the capital. Once he stood on the floor of the senate and brandished what he said was a list of such lobbies bringing pressure to bear on congress.

Texas Didn't Like It

Senator Joe Bailey of Texas was another. Gossip has it that he became so enraged during the debate in congress over the issue of the initiative and referendum when Arizona and New Mexico were being admitted to the Union that he offered his resignation. However, he later withdrew it.

Bailey didn't complete his last senate term. On January 3, 1913, he tendered his resignation to the senate and resumed the practice of law.

La Dietrich's Mannish Mode Startles Hollywood; Will You, Miss America, Wear Trousers?

America's women will be wearing trousers soon if they follow the lead of Marlene Dietrich and other movie stars. Miss Dietrich, whose name in moviedom has been synonymous with sharply limbs, startled Hollywood a few weeks ago by appearing in men's sports clothes. Soon other Hollywoodians were appearing in masculine togs, less extreme than Marlene's to be sure. But no one was prepared for the shock Marlene gave Hollywood at a movie premiere the other night. She appeared in men's evening coat and trousers, a masculine overcoat and a soft mannish hat. Here she is as she chatted with Maurice Chevalier. The reason for trousers? Women's clothes cost too much, Marlene says.

GAMES NEXT WEDNESDAY

Ghouls vs Battery Shop.
Beiers vs Polo.
Reynolds vs Ashton.

Polo and Ashton, hitherto the class of the Commercial league, were on the short end of two big upsets in last evening's play at the local high school gym. The Ghouls gave Polo its severest trimming of the two rounds of play by an 18-10 count. Hasseberg's performance in the closing minutes turned back Ashton and gave Beiers a 26-21 victory. The third contest of Wednesday resulted in a 17-20 win for the Reynolds over the Battery Shop outfit.

The first big surprise was in the second game of the program. Polo, previously defeated in the second round by their jinx opponents, the Battery Shoppers, jumped off to a 2-0 lead early in the first quarter. At the quarter the count was 3-2. In the next period both teams had their defense working well but the Ghouls pushed into a 6-5 lead at the half. With a desperate rush to start the second half the Ghouls jumped out to take a 16-5 lead. Polo's only score in this third period was a free toss and Dixon was in front 16-6. Neither outfit accomplished much in the following quarter, the final being 18-10. Carlson had four baskets and a free throw for nine points and the leader in the scoring division. Hilliker was next with six points.

By far the most unexpected result was achieved in the following game. Beiers' Loafers, victors in only one of seven games, went out and in the closing minutes took Ashton for a 26-21 whipping. In the opening quarter the play was close, Ashton going into an 8-6 lead at the end of the first period. The advantage increased to 14-10 at the half. The fireworks were still in hiding in the third stanza when Ashton kept plugging along to hold their lead. The score at the beginning of the final period was 19-13 in Ashton's favor. Beiers' then started a do-or-die rally. With Slat's Hasseberg getting "hot" from all angles their offense could not be checked. However, Kersten's long finger enabled Ashton to stay in front 21-16. Hasseberg's shot from in front and a wicked one-hander from the corner made it 21-20. This same individual was good for another basket and two free tosses while Vorhis' bucket gave Dixon the 26-21 decision. The scoring was led by Hasseberg on four baskets and three free throws for eleven points. Besides these eleven points Hasseberg's great defensive play forced Moyer, leading scorer with 86 points, to be content with a pair of free shots. It was the first game in which the Ashton blond did not grab at least one basket. R. Kersten's nine points gave him second place.

In the opening fray of the evening's cage entertainment the Reynolds received a real scare in the last quarter but were able to hang on long enough to win 27-22. Leading 6-2 at the quarter the Reynolds took a 13-4 advantage at the half. It looked like a hopeless task for the Battery Shop when the score rolled up to a 21-7 lead at the end of the third quarter. However, the vicious 13 point attack by the losers almost accomplished some serious damage but Johnson's basket kept the Reynolds out of striking distance. Joyce and G. Lebre led with six points each. Five points apiece by Henert and Schertner gave them second highest honors.

Bill Guthrie, American League umpire, has a sense of humor nearly as big as himself.

Bill was doing a stand at the Red Sox ballfield in Boston one day in 1932. He was behind the plate. Benny Tate was the Sox catcher. The balls were flying fast, and Guthrie was calling them as he thought they should be. But Tate didn't agree entirely with Bill's decisions.

One came whizzing across and it looked like a perfect strike to Benny. But Bill thought otherwise and called it a ball.

"Bill," shot out Benny, "that was a good ball."

"I know it was," Guthrie replied. "It was a brand new one. I just took it out of the box and rolled it out to the mound."

And that shut Benny up for the day.

There is still—I mean there still is—money in the world. From Agua Caliente comes the report that Norman Church, owner of the Northfield stable, bet $5000 on Sumit to beat Bahamas—and Bahamas won.

Sammy Slaughter's manager, Bud Taylor, says his lad can lick Lou Brouillard and John Indrisano in the same ring the same night—five rounds each, with a few minutes of rest between bouts.

Maybe the present heavyweight champion (let's see, it's Shacker, isn't it?) has taken a leaf from the book of Jim Figg—who was the first champion—and who held his title more than 10 years without defending it.

WELL, WE'LL SEE—

Quick now—who is the professional golf champion of Great Britain—well, if you must know, it's Henry Cotton—a young man of 25—who also has ambitions to become American champion—he shot a 65 at Moor Park, cutting four strokes off the record—which lets you know that Henry is no un-pleasant.

Cockroach racing is the newest sport in Paris, folks—the course is a glass table, with 12 grooves partitioned off—they start out of boxes—the price of a fast cockroach is about 10 francs—in the cheaper claiming races.

To go from the ridiculous to the sublime or from cockroaches to kings, if you will, Gene Tunney would like to be a Senator—you know, of course, that he's a Democrat—and political observers say he has a pretty good chance to go to Washington in behalf of Connecticut—maybe he's the very guy who could pipe down Huey Long and get away with it.

FAREWELL, FAST ONE!

The Pirates are gambling on one more year in the limp souper of Mr. Waite Hoyt—they asked Waite the other day what had become of his fast ball—and he told them that Al Simmons had knocked it over the wall back in 1931—but

Football Rules Committee Will Discuss Change

Three Suggestions To Prevent Pass Abuse Are Considered

New York, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Whether or not the Football Rules Committee decides to make any changes this year, the coaches have a few very definite ideas of what ought to be done and are preparing to sift the suggestions at a meeting of their "Committee of Twenty" early in February and to present them to the rules body, when it gathers.

The two principal ideas, as gathered by Lou Little, chairman of the committee the coaches formulated at their December meetings, are that something ought to be done about the forward pass and that the ball ought to be brought in from the edge of the field without the loss of a down, before it is carried over the sideline.

Fear that the forward pass was getting out of hand and too many passes were being tossed indiscriminately was reflected in the report of the 1932 Rules Committee. The coaches offer three possible changes to discourage too much passing. They are:

1. That the penalty for two successive incomplete passes be increased from five to fifteen yards, offered by Little.
2. That forward passes be permitted from any point behind the scrimmage line, replacing the present restriction that the ball must be thrown from a point at least five yards behind the line, made by Dick Hanley of Northwestern.
3. That a forward pass caught by the defense after it was touched by an ineligible receiver be ruled as an intercepted pass, instead of an incomplete pass as is the case today.

"Personally," Little said, "I believe that aside from simplifying the rules, taking away the ambiguity that exists in some places, the rules should be let alone. Last year's changes worked out very well. A little attention to the forward pass is about all I can see that is necessary."

ROCHELLE WILL TEST CHANCE OF SHARPE SHOOTERS

The Local High School To Attempt To Stay In Loop Race

By DON HILLIKER

Rochelle of the North Central Conference and Rock Falls of the Rock River Valley league. This pair of cage teams compose the lineup for Coach L. E. Sharpe and his Dixon high cagers over the coming week-end. Friday night the locals take on Rochelle on the Rochelle court in an attempt to stay in the league race. Returning to its home floor on Saturday night Dixon faces Rock Falls.

Curtis Strong, absent from the DeKalb contest because of a bruised shoulder, will be back in uniform for both tussles. Although the play against DeKalb without Strong was the best displayed thus far, nevertheless his return will add materially to Dixon's strength. Fans undoubtedly will see the regular lineup in use. It will be a choice between Flanagan, Underwood and Henry for the forwards. In the event Strong does not start then Fordham will jump center. Bellows and Hasseberg will handle the other positions.

Against DeKalb and in practice this week the Dixon crew looks like a basketball team. With Bellows and Henry finally clicking it was discovered that the local five was a tough bunch to stop. Sharpe is keeping the practice at top speed to destroy any signs of "cockiness" that might arise over the recent win.

On Friday night Dixon plays a team that so far in the schedule has proven to be a very hard nut to crack when on its own floor. Belvidere and DeKalb had a world of trouble in subduing the Ogle members of the N. C. I. C. on the Rochelle floor. This and the fast improvement of Friday's hosts only indicates that Dixon has no set-up ahead.

After meeting Rochelle the home quintet must clash with one more of those Akey-coached Rock Falls teams. Co-champions with Polo last season, Rock Falls was also the Sterling district tourney winner. His 1932-33 edition is not so powerful, having lost a trio of stars in the Hunsberger brothers and Stevens, but it is on the heels of Polo in this winter's flag chase. Calligan and Corzett are the regulars of last season now appearing Calligan and Walton play the forwards, Corzett, center with Bonardi and Gallentine at guards. Grade school basketball fans will remember Gallentine as the mainstay of Rock Falls' graders of 1931-32. Rock Falls also has a Friday engagement when Oregon appears on the formers' floor.

A large crowd is expected to see Dixon playing its only Saturday night home game.

Lindstrom Likes Outfield Posts

Chicago, Jan. 26.—(AP)—It's all right with Freddie Lindstrom if they keep him chasing baseballs in the outfield from now on.

During a fanning bee in a loop gymnasium where Lindstrom is getting ready for 1933 and Pittsburg, he was asked if he would rather play third base as he once did for the Giants or patrol the outfield.

"Give me the outfield every time," Freddie replied with a wide grin. "It's better and warmer work. You don't run down so soon. When you see a fellow walking along with stopped shoulders and a worried look, you can pick him out. He's an ex-third baseman, who spent his baseball career chasing bunts that weren't bunts. 'Nope, not for me. Give me the outfield every time.'"

Giants Provide Most Ball Items

New York, Jan. 26.—(AP)—While activity in the baseball contract market remains slow as the clubs and the holdout brigade remain firm on their bid and asked prices, the New York Giants continue to provide a bit of news for the fans each day. The signing of Joe Moore, left fielder from Texas, was announced by the Giant management yesterday and with it went the news that Bill Terry now has enough players under contract to put a full team on the field.

Another bit of news from the Giant offices and a welcome one to the boys who occupy the hot bleachers at the Polo Grounds, was that Travis Jackson has been formally reinstated by Commissioner Landis and is ready to make a bid for his old place at shortstop. Jackson, who suffered from bad knees, is exercising regularly at his Arkansas home to strengthen the joints.

DE VALERA HAS BIG MAJORITY IN IRISH POLL

His Party In Complete Control As Result Of Elections

Dublin, Irish Free State, Jan. 26.—(AP)—Incomplete returns indicated today that President Eamon De Valera's party, the Fianna Fail, won a decisive victory in Tuesday's election of a new Dail Eireann.

He may be assured of election to the presidency without needing the votes of any other parties. The Fianna Fail—the party which has fought for complete independence of Ireland—has never had a clear majority in the Dail in the ten-year history of the Free State. The Dail elected De Valera President for the first time last March 9 as the result of a Fianna Fail-Labor party combine.

The returns today showed the Fianna Fail has won 22 seats to nine for the Comanna Naeghael, the party of William T. Cosgrave, the Free State's President since its organization until his defeat last year. Independents were assured of four seats, Labor one and the Non Center party one. This left 116 to be filled.

Daily Health Talk

CHRONIC DIARRHEA

Chronic diarrhea is a symptom and not a disease. As a symptom it may be associated with any one of a number of conditions.

An absence of hydrochloric acid in the secretions of the stomach or the diminution in the total secretions of the stomach sometimes leads to diarrhea.

Again, interference with the fat-digesting mechanism of the gastrointestinal tract may give rise to a peculiar diarrhea in which the stools are pasty and yellow, showing marked quantities of undigested fats.

In this type of diarrhea sometimes the fault lies in the secretions of the pancreas or sweetbread.

Cataarrh of the small intestines may also be responsible for chronic diarrhea. Not infrequently the stools in this type of diarrhea are very offensive, because of the composition of proteins and the fermentation of carbohydrates.

Chronic diarrhea may be due to disease in the lower portion of the gastro-intestinal tract, the colon. Here the diarrhea may be due to catarrhal disease of the colon or to ulcers.

Diarrhea also may be due to cancerous growth formations. Tuberculosis of the colon may also cause loose bowel movements.

Chronic diarrhea is sometimes due to disturbances in the nervous system. This is called the neurogenic type of diarrhea and is usually due to emotional or psychic disturbances.

The diagnosis of the cause of chronic diarrhea is rather complicated, necessitating careful scrutiny of the history of the patient, his physical condition, study of the stools, X-ray examinations and when necessary direct examination of portions of the gastro-intestinal tract through illuminated tubes.

Treatment depends upon the cause. Diet is of first importance, but the patient must not experiment upon himself. As a general rule, rough foods are to be avoided.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salty mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of a substitute, 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Dispersal Sale-Duroc Jerseys

Saturday, January 28, 1933

On account of their many other farm and business activities, the owners of Reynoldswood Farms wish to withdraw from the breeding and showing of Durocs, and have decided to offer for sale their entire herd of select Gilts, Bred Sows and Herd Boars. 41 Head—including many prize winners at National Swine Show and leading Fairs. Sows and Gilts bred for the requirement of both breeders and 4-H Clubs. All swine in excellent condition and free from defects. Have received simultaneous treatment for cholera and are considered immune. We believe this is the greatest opportunity of the year for breeders and farmers to secure foundation stock for their herds which will bring credit in the Show ring or will produce economical feeders for the market.

Sale begins at 1:00 P. M. Held under cover at Ben Baus Sale Barn, corner Ottawa Ave. and River St. Dixon Illinois. Auctioneer: Guy L. Pettit, Bloomfield, Iowa.

ONLY "HALF THERE" WHEN YOU SHOULD BE YOUR BEST!

How many people sit down to dinner listless, fatigued, no appetite, when in the family at evening they should be their best! Nearly always it's excess acids that are to blame—acids that sap vital nervous energy, upset the system and often precede the breakdown of health!

In the mouth acids attack enamel, bring tooth decay and bad breath. In the stomach they attack delicate linings and bring sick headaches, indigestion, gas and constipation, and often chronic disorders.

Neutralize excess acids at once with Milnesia Wafers—Light Milk of Magnesia in tasty tablet form. One Wafer before bedtime, and the whole digestive system, from mouth and gums to intestines, is kept sweet and clean and clear of these harmful acids. Thousands of physicians now recommend Milnesia instead of old fashioned Liquid Milk of Magnesia.

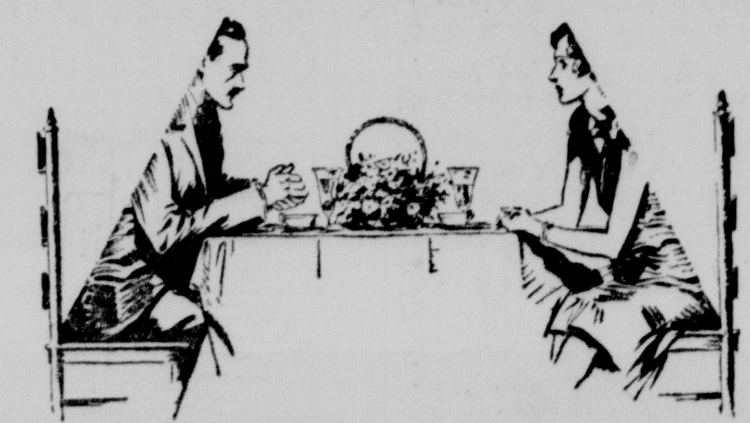

Economical, too!
Each Milnesia package contains more

A BOOK A DAY

SO NOW HE'S NOT JEALOUS

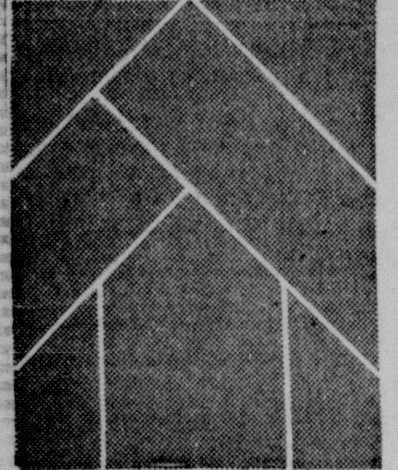

By Bruce Catton
Jealousy is an evil which can destroy all of the happiness of love. But it isn't a deeply instinctive trait which all lovers are bound to feel; on the contrary, people of good sense can eradicate it completely if they will only try.
These fruits of knowledge are plucked from "Jealousy," a novel by N. H. C. James.
This story tells how Catherine, gently-born and sensitive, marries Michael, who owns a prospering printing shop in London. Catherine is a widow; her first husband, Bill, was wildly and insanely jealous of her, and finally shot himself to death after brooding over this and that a bit too much.
So when Catherine discovers that Michael, too, has a strong jealous streak, she decides she had better stay single. She loves Michael but she insists on preserving her own individuality. She won't have even a husband inquiring into her comings and goings, her friendships and her private interests. So Michael gets the air.
And then Michael gets on to himself. He goes off to Sweden to meditate, and concludes that jealousy is all wrong. If you love someone enough, he tells himself, anything that makes that person happy makes you happy. Jealousy

COMPTON NEWS

By Leslie G. Archer
Compton—Monday evening the Compton's Woman's Club held its regular meeting. The principal part of the program was a club institute led by Mrs. Mary Deutsch, who is Club Institute Chairman of the Thirtieth District. Under the direction and guidance of the chairman the following program was carried out:
"What is a Woman's Club?"—Mrs. Daisy Tribbett.
"Making the Club Program"—Mrs. Mildred Olson.
"Club Relationship with the Community"—Mrs. Zelda Swope.
"Ten Ways to Kill a Club"—a paper read by Mrs. Maxine Gilmore.

A Parliamentary Drill, with twenty-two members taking part. It was found that this most practical program offered as many suggestions helpful to any and all organizations, and Mrs. Deutsch made the discussion inspiring as well as practical. The remainder of the evening was spent with a discussion of movies and of a proposed club theater party, this was followed by a gay little moving picture "Wild Nell, the Pet of the Prairies," or "Her Final Sacrifice" presented by.

DeElta Chaon—Lady Vere De Vere, an English heiress.
Marian July—Handsome Harry, King of the Cowboys.
Malinda Kaiser—Sitting Bull, the Indian chief.
Virginia Ogilvie—Bull Durham, has a romance.

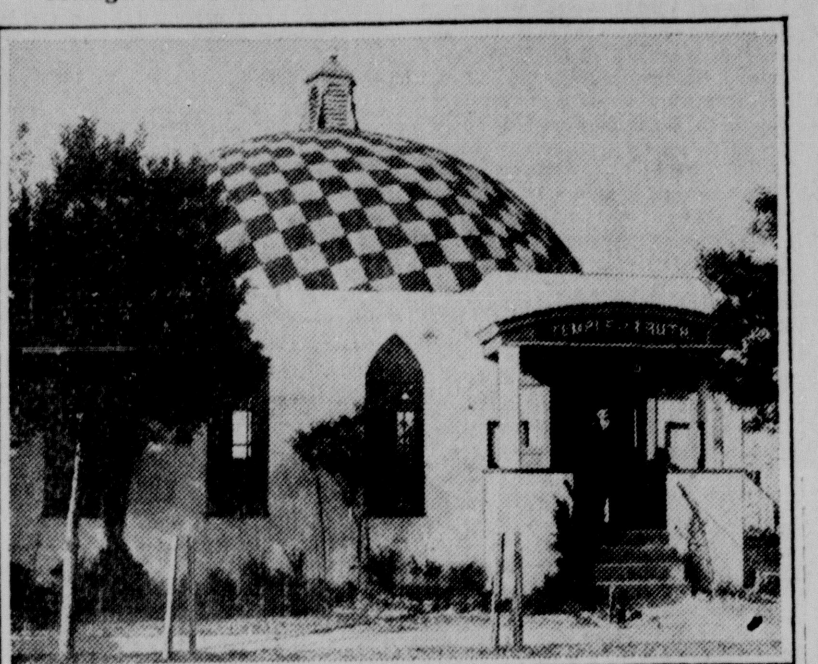

Alta Cook—Hula Hula, the Indian Medicine Woman.
Vera Mirley—Wild Nell, the pet of the prairies.
The hostesses, Mrs. Mabel Cook, Miss Lucille Cook, Mrs. Eunice A. Stein and Mrs. Katie Rhodes, served a delightfully refreshing lunch. Forty-five members attended the meeting.

The Compton high school civics class, in studying local tax problems have found that a Compton tax payer in 1932, paid the taxes as follows:
A dollar was divided as follows:
9.3 cents went for state tax.
8.6 cents went to Lee county.
4.0 cents to Brooklyn township.
6 cents to the road and bridge fund.

9.4 to special hard road bonds.
31.2 to the local school district.
9.7 to the Lee County Non-High School fund.
21.5 to the village of Compton.
Many people are confused by the fact that the tax payers of the local school district pay two separate school taxes, the first and larger of which is for the support of the first eight grades and for the payment of the bonds and interest on bonds for the local grade and high school building. The second tax is levied by the non-high school board for the high schools.
Did you know that the bill for keeping a half million people in prison is one and one-half billion dollars a year, while the expense of keeping 25 million children in school is two and a half billion? In other words—$3,000 annually for every prisoner and $100 annually for the school child. (N. E. A.)

Mr. and Mrs. John Tribbett entertained a number of relatives at their home here Sunday. The guests included, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Keller and family of Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons, Mrs. J. A. McCann and son John of Amboy and Ralph Williams of the "Dumb Bell" section of the team, and lead the locals up to the last frame of the game, when Bohart and Chaon evened up the score by sinking some unusual shots from the center of the floor. The score was 23 to 23 when the final whistle sounded. The "Bears" won their game by the scant score of 15 to 12, over an unexperienced team.

Next Tuesday, January 31, Manager Wayne Archer has secured West Brooklyn to play a return engagement here at the high school gym. Both the first and second teams have won from West Brooklyn, but that was early in the season, and reports indicate that West Brooklyn has improved. H. M. Chaon is conducting a large sale at his store. It marks his fifth anniversary in business.

BATTLED ANGRY EAGLE
Calgary, Alta.—Andy Baxter, prominent Calgary sportsman, had a run in with an eagle recently. The eagle, one of four flying overhead, was brought down by Baxter's shot. On reaching the ground the eagle recovered and attacked Baxter sinking its talons into his arm through about five thicknesses of cloth. The talons had to be removed from Baxter's arm with a pair of pliers.
